Family and Community History Workshop and Field Trip to Canberra

Yuraki History, Politics and Culture Node of the National Indigenous Research and Knowledges Network in conjunction with The Wollotuka Institute will host this workshop and field trip:

WORKSHOP
Tuesday 10 March 2015, 1pm – 4pm
The Wollotuka Institute, Birabahn Building, University of Newcastle
(afternoon tea provided)

Presentations on archival research by:

- Professor John Maynard – Director, The Wollotuka Institute
- Assoc/Prof Victoria Haskins – Deputy Head of School of Humanities
- Kirsten Thorpe – Manager Indigenous Unit, Mitchell Library, Sydney
- Rebecca Bateman – Commonwealth Archives

FIELD TRIP

Wednesday 11 March
9am  Depart from The Wollotuka Institute
3pm  Research at Commonwealth Archives, Canberra
5pm  Arrive at hotel University House ANU

Thursday 12 March
9am – 5pm  Research War Memorial, Canberra

Friday 13 March
9am  Research AIATSIS, Canberra
2pm  Depart Canberra

Travel by bus, accommodation and breakfast is provided with all other costs to be provided by participants

Be quick as limited spaces are available

Contact Amanda Kelly, The Wollotuka Institute
T: 4921 2011
E: Amanda.Kelly@newcastle.edu.au